“Reading & Reflection on Text”

This practical is included in the second-year syllabus. For the implementation of these practical, libraries are commonly used within the department. The in-charge of this practical utilizes various sources such as reference books, textbooks, newspapers, and articles. The department in-charge suggests selecting any text from the above sources and asks students to write a reflection on the text. In this manner, this activity and practical are completed with the assistance of the library.
