Topic 3: Evaluation of Current Anti-Ragging Measures

An evaluation of the existing anti-ragging measures was conducted. Committee members noted that while some protocols are functioning well, others need improvement. Specific areas identified for enhancement included:

- Increasing awareness of reporting mechanisms.
- Regular training sessions for faculty and staff on recognizing and addressing ragging incidents.

Topic 4: Discussion on Upcoming Anti-Ragging Awareness Programs

The committee discussed several upcoming awareness programs aimed at educating students about the Anti-Ragging Act and fostering a safer campus environment. Proposed initiatives included:

- Workshops and seminars during the academic year.
- Distribution of informational materials, such as brochures and posters.

Topic 5: Review of Reported Ragging Cases

A formal review of ragging cases, if any, was conducted. It was confirmed that no cases of ragging had been reported so far in the academic year. The committee commended the collective efforts of staff and students in maintaining a ragging free campus.

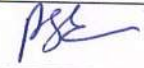

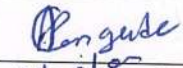

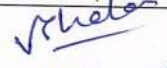

Topic 6: Open Floor for Additional Relevant Topics

No additional subjects were raised during the meeting.

The meeting concluded with a commitment to implement the discussed reforms and initiatives. The next meeting is scheduled in February 2025. All members are encouraged to bring any further suggestions or feedback regarding the anti-ragging measures in place.
